

Please, on behalf of most business air travelers, do not allow the use of cell phones on airplanes. It is bad enough having to deal with the users of cell phones in the terminals, lounges and eating establishments. Having to listen to loud conversations by people who think they are very important, in the next seat or anywhere close, would be the closest thing to a living hell that I could imagine. Please, please do not allow this to happen.